Starwalk gets RM20,000 boost

PENANG: Ivory Properties Group has contributed RM20,000 to Starwalk 2005.

Executive director Datuk Nazir Ariff said the group was delighted to contribute to one of the state's premier events.

"It's also part of our social obligation to the people," he said after presenting a mock cheque to Star Publications (M) Bhd regional advertising manager Chung Chok Yin on Friday.

Nazir said the group hoped that through its contribution, more people would get to know about the company and its projects, which include the Penang Times Square, The View luxury condominium in Batu Uban, the Tanjung Park condominium in Tanjung Tokong, and Plaza Ivory in Bukit Gambier.

Chief Minister Tan Sri Dr Koh Tsu Koon will flag off the 10km walk from the Penang International Sports Arena on Dec 11. There will be a side event - celebrity walk.

The Starwalk Carnival will be held from Dec 9 to Dec 11 with a charity concert kicking off on the first day.

Futsal, 3-on-3 basketball and sepak takraw competitions will also be staged, with their finals being held on the second day.

The main sponsors are Suzuki, Panasonic, Milo,

Sunquick, 100 Plus Power, DiGi, Pallas, Tiger Balm, Ivory Properties Group, Spritzer and Revolution Cycles Sdn Bhd.

Jointly organised by Star Publications and the Penang Amateur Athletics Association, the event is part of the annual Pesta Pulau Pinang.
