

Contest a hit with children

Shoppers engrossed in watching the children take part in the game.

By Danny Ooi

ONE hundred children aged between five and 12 took part in the Snake and Ladder contest at the Penang Times Square recently.

The two-day contest was among various activities organised by the mall in conjunction with its Holiday Fiesta programme.

Others included Holiday Fun Merchandising Fair, Holiday Fun Colouring Contest and Holiday Fun Kids Talent Search.

"The contest had participants competing against one another on a life-sized Snake and Ladder board to get to the preliminary and final rounds. The top three winners of the preliminary round received a RM50 cash voucher each," said the mall's management consultant, Pauline Teh.

(From left) Choo, Ong and Yeoh after the prize-giving ceremony.

At the final round, Ong Eng Chai, 12, emerged winner. He received RM200 cash and a RM350 cash voucher.

"I did not plan to enter the contest. It was an impromptu decision," said the primary six pupil of SRJK (C) Sin Kung.

Second prize went to Choo Jia Yong, 10, while Adrian Yeoh, 12, received third prize.

Choo, a primary four pupil of SRJK (C), won RM150 cash and a RM200 cash voucher while Yeoh took home RM150 cash and a RM200 cash voucher.