

Happy MOMENTS

Joy in the wards

THE cast of Gurney Plaza's Toy Toy Amazon Adventure Live Show visited the Penang Adventist Hospital's paediatrics ward to spread Christmas cheer and to lift the spirits of the sick children. An Australian troupe incorporating circus, dance, acrobatic and music elements, the quintet made of titular character Toy Toy, the Dancing Belle, the Butterfly, Slither the Snake and Duke the Monkey were a sight to behold in their colourful costumes and comedic antics.

SEND PHOTOS

Share your joyous moments by sending pictures to: north@thestar.com.my. Please include full description of photo. *Photo size must be 2MB and above.

Festive thanks

Penang MCA adviser and Bukit Gelugor Barisan Nasional coordinator Datuk Koay Kar Huah receiving a token of appreciation from Reverend Pastor Michael John while posing for a group photo with the Victory Lutheran church members and underprivileged children at the 1 Malaysia Christmas celebration and Happy New Year 2011 party.

Peace at home

Christmas cheer came early for the less fortunate at Penang Shan Children's Home, thanks to Ivorycares, the charitable arm of Ivory Properties Group. Twenty children aged from six to 18 were treated to a hearty lunch and received school uniform and shoes. Santa Claus was also present to hand out Christmas goodies to the children.

Xmas wish

A painting of a multi-racial community by 12-year-old Loong Soké Yee showing the various races in Malaysia, with Santa Claus, three boys dressed in Malay, Chinese and Sabahan costumes, and an Indian girl in her traditional outfit.

Festive rides and giveaways

RAPID Penang's commuters at the Weld Quay bus terminal on Penang island were greeted by Santa and Santarinas who handed out sweets, candies, snacks, movie ticket vouchers and bus passes.