

Supper for 50 lucky Starwalkers

New club sponsoring vouchers for fun night out

STARWALKERS who love eating out stand a chance to win a prize they will surely enjoy.

A total of 50 cash vouchers for supper at the Soju Club in Penang Times Square are up for grabs.

Club operations manager Zul Arshad said they decided to sponsor the vouchers, worth RM100 each, to promote the new club which opened last month.

"The cash vouchers entitle the winners to spend them on any food and beverage items in the club, beer garden or cafe at our outlet located on the mall's ground floor.

"They can try out our low-fat gelato available in 18 flavours," he said when met at the outlet after presenting the vouchers to The Star's advertising representative Sandy Kow on Friday.

Customers at Soju can indulge in pork-free local or western dishes and drinks while they party the night away.

Zul said that among the club's specialities were freshly grilled seafood and the set lunches with a selection of four main courses.

Soju's resident band, Crush, will also be there to entertain diners from Monday to Saturday from 10.45pm to 2am.

Comprising two Americans, two Thais, two Filipinos, a Canadian, a Brazilian and a Columbian, the multinational nine-member ensemble is well known in the international club scene.

Penang Starwalk 2010 will be flagged off at the Penang International Sports Arena in Relau at 7am on Dec 12.

It is jointly organised by Star Publications (M) Bhd and the Penang Amateur Athletic Association.

The main sponsors for the walk are Indomie, Modenas, DiGi, Magnum, Malta, Milo, Pallas, 100 Plus, Eastin Hotel Penang, Sunquick and One Community Worldwide.
